

COMPRESSPORT® COMPRESSION SUPPLIER OF TINKOFF-SAXO PRO CYCLING TEAM

COMPRESSPORT®, the brand already 9 times World Champion is glad and proud to announce this new partnership with UCI Pro Tour Tinkoff-Saxo.

Tinkoff-Saxo Pro Riders will benefit from the COMPRESSPORT® technologies with:

- Pro Racing Armsleeves: during the effort in training, and for recovery after the races.
- Full Legs sleeves: The ultimate recovery tool night and day
- Full Socks: For travelling (by air, by car, by bus,...) in the best conditions possible

The riders and the team's medical staff tested COMPRESSPORT® products during their pre-season training camp in Las Palmas (Canary Islands) and their return was unanimous.

Tinkoff-Saxo chose COMPRESSPORT® for:

- Its technical know-how and the specific conception techniques used to develop the products
- The consistency of the products' quality 100% Made in Europe
- The reactivity of the Compressport's staff to the team's specific demands.

Counting in its rank world class riders such as Alberto Contador, Roman Kreuziger, Karsten Kroon, Daniele Bennati and Chris Anker Sorensen, Tinkoff Saxo will be aiming for wins at all major Grand Tours.

"Using compression socks is very important in order to optimize my recovery time after hard training but also during long flights or car rides. I think Compressport make the best product on the market and I find it indispensable in my everyday routine as a professional cyclist" said Daniele Bennati.

This partnership will enable a close collaboration between Compressport's R&D team and the riders in order to develop quality products responding to the demands of elite racing.

Born in Switzerland in 2008, COMPRESSPORT® is the benchmark product in the sports compression market. It is the only brand to offer seamless products specially designed and developed for each different muscle chains.

COMPRESSPORT® is recognized as a leader in compression thanks to the technical features and unique designs of its product range and their quality. Developed in Switzerland, all products are manufactured in Europe.

As the existing official supplier of Compression to the French Swimming Federation, the French Tennis Federation and the Official Compression Partner of many World Class triathlete and trail runners and with this new sensational high performance alliance with Tinkoff-Saxo Pro Tour Team, COMPRESSPORT® continues its breakaway in the cycling market.
